WESTERN GALLERY PROGRAMS FALL QUARTER

GALLERY TOURS on Dominique Blain Exhibition (thru Nov. 4)
All tours in gallery and open to any classes and public:

Wed. Oct. 18, noon hour: Dawn Dietrich, Dept. English, specialist in film and Modern and Post-Modern Literature
4-5pm (gallery hours extended): Sarah Clark-Langager, Director

Wed. Oct. 25, noon hour: Harry Ritter, Dept. History, presently leading a seminar on history and memory

Mon. Oct. 30, 4-5pm (gallery hours extended): Sarah Clark-Langager, Director

Wed. Nov. 1, noon hour: Kristen Parris, Dept. Political Science, specialist in Asian politics

VIDEOTAPES on Masters of Modern Sculpture
The Western Gallery plans to show videotapes relating to the Outdoor Sculpture Collection this year. As background to more contemporary work to be shown later, the first presentations will feature the well known series Masters of Modern Sculpture. These videos have been purchased by the Western Gallery, Dept. Art, and Wilson Library.

To be shown in Room 238, large screen video, open to all classes and public:

Thurs. Oct. 12, noon - 1pm. Part I: The Pioneers. Video features artists such as Rodin, Matisse, Picasso, Gonzales, Brancusi. Narrator is sculptor, George Segal.

Oct. 12, 1-2pm. Part II: Beyond Cubism. Video features Constructivists, Dadaists, and others such as Calder, Giacometti, Moore, Beuys, Arman, Y. Klein, Tinguely, and Anthony Caro (in WWU sculpture collection). Narrator is sculptor George Rickey (work behind Whatcom Museum).

Thurs. Oct. 19, noon - 1pm and repeated 1-2 pm:
Part III: The New World. Video features some of the artists in WWU collection such as Di Suvero, Noguchi, Judd, Morris, and Serra along with Kienholz, Christo, Heizer and R. Smithson. Narrator is sculptor Mary Miss.