

SEEING JAZZ

Response to the visual art by The Chuck Israels Trio
featuring
Dan Faehnle, guitarist

Seeing Jazz is a presentation of America's Jazz Heritage, a partnership of the Lila Wallace-Reader's Digest Fund and the Smithsonian Institution.

Western Washington University
President Karen W. Morse & Professor Joe Morse and the Friends of the Western Gallery invite you to a special viewing of Seeing Jazz
an exhibit of art influenced by the liberating forces of jazz

Monday, 4 May 1998
5:30 to 7:30 p.m.
The Western Gallery
Western Washington University

RSVP using the enclosed card by 27 April. See back for parking information.
Call 360/650-6825 for additional information or disability accommodations.

Western Gallery
WWU / Bellingham

From Interstate-5 take exit #250 onto Samish Way; follow the signs for Western Washington University.

Enter campus via South College Drive.

Turn right at the Visitor Center and go around the curve up the hill.

Parking Lots 17G and 31G will be on your left. Show invitation to attendants.

The Gallery is at the far end of the lots.