"FORBIDDEN PLEASURES AND FEARS"

Dr. Linda Smeins, Department of Art

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 12 NOON

FINE ARTS BUILDING, ROOM #238

In conjunction with the "Embedded Metaphor" exhibition in the Western Gallery, Dr. Linda Smeins will discuss her recent research and forthcoming book on "honeymoon culture." As an art and cultural historian, Dr. Smeins is interested in how art and architecture tell us something about the dreams and realities of our culture. Her research on the architecture of resorts, specifically the honeymoon spots, intersects with the contemporary artists' images of the bed in the exhibition. This promises to be a "DELIGHTFUL" lecture.
