

WESTERN GALLERY
Western Washington University, Bellingham

*BEYOND NOVELTY:
ARTISTS USING DIGITAL IMAGING NOW*

EXHIBITION: March 28-May 6, 2000

Features a select group of artists who have developed meaningful and imaginative work: Paul Berger, Thom Heilesen, Carolyn Krieg, Tom Lewis, and Anna Ullrich, all from Seattle; Diane Fenster, Pacifica, California; David Taylor, Las Cruces, New Mexico.

LECTURE: Wednesday, April 5th, 4-5 pm
Frazier Hall #2 (bldg. behind Noguchi sculpture)

An Illustrious Conversation between Rod Slemmons and Paul Berger: Slemmons is a nationally known curator and author, respected for his knowledge on historical and contemporary photography, as well as for his curatorial eye and distinguished lectures. Berger, Professor at the University of Washington, is considered the pioneer and philosophical leader. In his art, Berger has been interested in the affect of media technologies on people's collective ability to think.

RECEPTION: Western Gallery, April 5th, 5-7pm

For disability accommodations, call 360-650-3963.

GALLERY HOURS: Monday-Friday, 10am-4pm; Saturday, 12-4pm
Information: 360-650-3900