

OUTDOOR SCULPTURE COLLECTION
Centennial Events 1999-2000

Saturday, October 9

10:30 a.m. Collaborating with Artists, Steven Oliver, Bay area art collector, patron and businessman who provided technical assistance for Bruce Nauman's new sculpture. A slide lecture in 100 Arntzen Hall.

11:45 a.m. Dedication of Bruce Nauman's Stadium Piece. Join the internationally acclaimed artist Bruce Nauman on the south fields to celebrate the recent gift of the Virginia Wright Fund.

2 p.m. The Art of Bruce Nauman, Peter Schjeldahl, New York based art critic for Art in America and The New Yorker magazines, author, and lecturer at Harvard University. A slide lecture in Concert Hall, Performing Arts Center.

3:15 p.m. Dedication of the Virginia Wright Plaza by The Board of Trustees of Western Washington University. Site of the Mark di Suvero sculpture outside the Performing Arts Center.

Monday, November 8

7 p.m. The Art of Tom Otterness, Judith Russi Kirshner, authority on contemporary art, critic and Dean of the College of Architecture and the Arts, University of Illinois at Chicago. A slide lecture, 100 Arntzen Hall.

Tuesday, November 9

Tom Otterness talks about his new work, Feats of Strength, at Western. Time and place to be announced.

Winter speaker to be announced later.

May 17, 2000

7 p.m. John Beardsley will speak on site specific art and will address new issues and definitions resulting from working in and on the land. A lecturer in the Graduate School of Design at Harvard University, this author and curator is widely recognized for his pioneering book, Earthworks and Beyond. A slide lecture, 100 Arntzen Hall.

INFORMATION

Western Gallery information telephone line, 360-650-3900; Director's Office, 650-3963.
All events are free and open to the public. Parking available.